

GINGERBREAD

sensory writing tray

After using the ginger in a tray to practice letter formation you could extend learning by baking some biscuits!

https://www.bbc.co.uk/food/recipes/gingerbread_men_99096

RAINBOW TAPE ART

The Gingerbread Man Story has some great repeated refrains in it.

Repetition is one of the most familiar features of children's literature. It clarifies the structure of narrative for young readers, and helps them to remember what they have read. It adds rhythm and mysterious verbal charm .